

Aware, Inc. Reports Third Quarter 2008 Financial Results

BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 23 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Aware, Inc. (Nasdaq: AWRE), a leading supplier of broadband technology and biometrics software, today reported financial results for its third quarter ended September 30, 2008.

Revenues for the third quarter of 2008 were $6.4 million, a decrease of 14% compared to $7.5 million in the same quarter last year. For the nine months ended September 30, 2008, revenues decreased 6% to $18.4 million, compared to $19.7 million in the same period a year ago.

The Company reports its net income and basic and diluted net income per share in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and additionally, on a non-GAAP basis. Non-GAAP net income, where applicable, excludes the effect of stock-based compensation expense. The company uses the non-GAAP information internally to evaluate its operating performance and believes these non-GAAP measures are useful to investors as they provide additional insight into the underlying operating results. However, non-GAAP measures are not stated in accordance with, should not be considered in isolation from, and are not a substitute for, GAAP measures. A reconciliation of GAAP to non-GAAP results has been provided in the attached financial tables.

The GAAP net loss for the third quarter of 2008 was $0.7 million, or $0.03 per diluted share, which included $0.4 million of stock-based compensation charges in accordance with the provisions of FAS 123[®]. This compared to GAAP net income of $1.0 million, or $0.04 per diluted share, for the same period a year ago. GAAP net loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 was $3.2 million, or $0.13 per share, compared to a net loss of $32,000, or $0.00 per share, for the same period a year ago.

The Non-GAAP net loss for the third quarter of 2008, excluding the effect of stock-based compensation, was $0.3 million, or $0.01 per diluted share. For the nine months ended September 30, 2008, the company had a non-GAAP net loss, excluding the effect of stock-based compensation, of $2.1 million, or $0.09 per share.

Michael Tzannes, Aware's chief executive officer, said, "Biometrics revenues this quarter were again strong, driven by exposure to multiple segments of the biometrics market through a broad base of OEM and system integrator customers. In DSL Test and Diagnostics, we continue to make progress with test infrastructure opportunities driven by the deployment of VDSL2 and IPTV services. Our OEM customer base positions us well in multiple markets. In licensing, our strategy is to leverage our world class silicon intellectual property technology base, and diversify into new revenue opportunities."

Safe Harbor Warning

Portions of this release contain forward-looking statements regarding future events and are subject to risks and uncertainties, such as estimates or projections of future revenue and earnings and the growth of the DSL and biometrics markets. Aware wishes to caution you that there are factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results indicated by such statements. The DSL factors include, but are not limited to: we have a unique business model, our quarterly results are difficult to predict, our DSL licensing and DSL test and diagnostic businesses depend upon a limited number of customers, we derive a significant amount of revenue from a small number of customers, we depend on equipment companies to incorporate our technology into their products, we face intense competition from other DSL vendors, DSL technology competes with other technologies for broadband access, our business could be harmed if our test and diagnostic hardware and software products have quality problems, we depend on a single source contract manufacturer for the manufacture of our DSL hardware products, our manufacturing systems may not be adequate for our DSL test and diagnostics hardware products, we depend on single source suppliers for components in our DSL hardware products, and our business is subject to rapid technological change. The biometric factors include, but are not limited to: market acceptance of our biometric products, changes in contracting practices of government or law enforcement agencies, announcements or introductions of new products by our competitors, delays, failures or problems in our biometric products, problems in our biometrics services business, delays in the adoption of new industry biometric standards, and competitive pressures resulting in lower software product revenues.
